State Commission Also Decides Civil Engineering Must Contribute to State

Richmond, July 23.—While sunning for taxable properties, the State tax commissioners yesterday discovered two sources of revenue hitherto untouched by the State. These two pieces of virgin tax soil are civil engineers and baseball clubs, neither of which has hitherto contributed to the support of the State. The commission decided that civil engineering are as much subjects for taxation as are the members of any other profession and that there was no valid reason why circuses should pay heavy license taxes and baseball clubs go scot free. Therefore, the commission feels that at least two new ideas have been found that may possibly be included in the forthcoming tax revision bill.

DEATH OF T. L. REYNOLDS.

Tobacco Manufacturer of Roanoke, Va., Survived by 34 Descendants.

Roanoke, Va., July 23.—Thomas L. Reynolds, a retired tobacco manufacturer, 97 years old, died in a hospital Tuesday night of injuries sustained last May when he fell at his home in this city. He was a veteran of the Civil War.

Reynolds is survived by six children, 24 grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren. He was born at Back Creek, Roanoke County. In early life he established a tobacco business in Franklin County.

Negress Slays Assailant.

West Chester, Pa. July 23.—Thomas Ridgely, colored, about 23 years old, was shot and killed here Tuesday by Miss Katie Clay, also colored, when Ridgely forced his way into her home on Maple avenue and attempted assault. The girl was alone, preparing the noonday meal for her father and brothers, who are employed in the local wheel works.

When Ridgely accosted the woman she repulsed him and he drew a revolver and threatened her life. She also procured a revolver and shot him in the breast inflicting a wound from which he died on the way to the local hospital.

The woman was arrested and lodged in jail awaiting a hearing. She is of excellent reputation, while her assailant has had a bad record for many years, having served term in the House of Refuge, the Huntingdon Reformatory and the penitentiary for various crimes, including an attempt to wreck a train on the Fraser branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and attempting to kill his mother with a butcher knife.

SOLDIERS IN CAMP

Gordonsville, Va., July 23.—Just as the sun was sinking between the hills overlooking the camp yesterday evening the First Virginia Infantry passed in review in the first regimental parade held at the joint camp of instructions. The review proceeded guard mount, and was witnessed by hundreds of town's folks who lined the point of vantage around the parade grounds.

The actual work of the camp has now started in earnest. Two heavy drills were held yesterday and to top it off, the volunteer soldiers received a touch of real hardship when supper was delayed in the majority of the companies and skipped in some entirely, on account of the late issue of rations by the regular army commissary. The State commissary was cleaned out by the big draft and as it was unable to improve its resources the boys suffered. The evil has been corrected and full rations were served today.

ROASTS AS HE LIFTS WIRE

Harvester on Top of Load of Grain is Strangely Set Afire.

Palmyra, Pa., July 23.—Harvey, 17 year old son of Grant Krall, a farmer at Buffalo Springs was frightfully burned and narrowly escaped death by electrocution yesterday on the farm of his brother, Grant Krall, here. Young Krall was riding on top of a wagonload of wheat sheaves when he sought to escape being swept off by low hanging wires. Not knowing the deadly voltage they carried, Krall seized hold to lift them so that his body might pass underneath.

He screamed with pain and fright as the 6600 volts dashed into his body burning his fingers so badly that most of them must be amputated.

Farm hands rescued him and beat out the flames and he is now in the City Hospital with prospects of recovery.

KILLED IN UPSET RACER.

Auto's Contact With Rival Causes a Fatal Accident.

Selinsgrove, Pa., July 23.—Mrs. Ernest Felton, of Sunbury, was killed while Robert Logan and his wife were hastily hurt yesterday when an automobile in which they were riding collided with another machine and was overturned. Mrs. Felton was pinned beneath the wrecked car.

Witnesses of the accident declare that the two automobiles were racing on a road near the camp of the Third Brigade here. The driver of the other car, the identity of which is unknown, is alleged to have attempted to pass the machine occupied by Mrs. Felton and the Logans, when his machine caught a rear wheel of the Logan car and overturned it.

The second machine and its occupants disappeared immediately after the accident.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

For seventy-five years—three-quarters of a century—the express has been the right hand of the shippers of commercial America. The Express came to Alexandria in 1850 and it came to stay. For sixty-four years it has been the right-hand of commercial Alexandria.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? No! the merchants of the country—shippers everywhere—petitioned Congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. Chamberlain's Tablets helped me at once and by using them for several weeks I was cured of the complaint," writes Mrs. Mary E. McMullen, Phelps, N. Y.

Woman's Duty to Herself.

Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa., writes: "Last summer I was advised by a friend to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.

"This man must win!"

"He's the man who, from the beginning of time, has proved to the world that it can be done. You can check him but he'll come back and come back until you wreck him. His will is made of whalebone. It has snap but won't snap. Bend it as much as you please but watch out for the rebound! He'll thrive so long as he's alive. The length of his fight is the limit of his faith. It takes more than one hit to make him quit!"

—Herbert Kaufman.
